

Igniting the Courage to be Real

June 23 & 24, 2012— 8367 Santa Clara Drive Dallas, TX

Often we find ourselves in the position of being less than authentic. We can compromise and inhibit our true expression in favor of putting on a mask of acceptable behavior. Our dynamism and aliveness chafes at this restriction and yearns to break free.

In this weekend we will explore ways to reignite the fire that lies deep in our inner Nature. We will learn to identify and pierce the blocks that cover up who we really are.

Your Teacher

Lauren Taylor is an ordained teacher of the Diamond Approach and has been a student of this work since 1990. As a member of the teaching staff of the Ridhwan Foundation, she currently teaches the Diamond Approach to individuals and groups in Colorado, Canada and Boston.

The Diamond Approach[®], a contemporary path of spiritual development, is a powerful and effective spiritual path for self-realization and self-actualization. This path arose out of an objective need, available to anyone who aspires to recognize their True Nature and to actually live that realization of True Nature in our modern Western society. It was introduced and developed by Hameed Ali (writing under the pen-name A.H. Almaas) over the past 35 years. It is a living, evolving teaching.
