

An Introduction to the Diamond Approach

Thursday, June 12, 2014 7:00 PM— 8367 Santa Clara Drive, Dallas, TX 75218

What is the Diamond Approach?

The Diamond Approach is a path of personal awakening to the true nature of reality. By making intimate contact with the truth of your everyday life, you can know the depths of who and what you are. You can learn to invite Being itself to provide you with profound guidance and understanding of your inner journey. You can come home to the still, sweet simplicity while living in today's complex world.

“The human being is a wonderful mystery, the more we know about this mystery the more we realize how little we know. This only impels us to look further, to explore deeper, and to investigate in newer ways. It is a joy to know ourselves and others, to actualize more of our infinite possibilities, and to extend our humanity to its farthest horizons.”

A.H. Almaas, the founder of the Diamond Approach

Your Teacher

Michael Boone lives in Boulder, Colorado and is an ordained Diamond Approach Teacher. He teaches individuals and groups in the Gulf Coast, Boulder, and Italian groups. He has been studying the Diamond Approach since 1984.

The Diamond Approach®, developed by the renowned philosopher and teacher A.H. Almaas is a spiritual teaching taught in groups and to individuals in Texas and around the world. In this introduction, we will discuss the potential for what it means to be a student of this Approach. The presentation will include opportunities for learning, personal inquiry, and group discussion.
