

Friends and Lovers An Introduction to the Diamond Approach

Thursday, December 4, 2014 7:00 PM– 8367 Santa Clara Drive, Dallas, TX 75218

“What is it to be a true friend? What are our ideas about being a true friend? And what about being a lover, how is that different from being a true friend? What is it like to be a lover? It has been said that the friend is the true mind and the lover is the true heart. What is the truth in this statement and is it possible to be both at the same time? Come and explore these questions for yourself using the main practice of inquiry in the Diamond Approach.”

Your Teacher

Rick Gaines has been a student of Hameed Ali and the Diamond Approach since 1984 and completed thirteen years of teacher training in 1999 to become an ordained teacher of that work. As a member of the teaching staff of the Ridhwan Foundation, he has taught the Diamond Approach to individuals and groups locally, out-of-state and overseas.

The Diamond Approach®, developed by the renowned philosopher and teacher A.H. Almaas is a spiritual teaching taught in groups and to individuals in Texas and around the world. In this class, we will discuss the potential for relationship and what it means to be a student of this Approach. The presentation will include opportunities for experiential learning, personal inquiry, and group discussion.

Date: December 4, 2014
Time: 7:00–9:30 p.m.
Location: 8367 Santa Clara Drive, Dallas TX 75218
Fee: $10 Love Offering Suggested (No one turned away due to lack of funds)

For Information, Contact:

Annette Anderson 214-660-4278 or andersonannettes@aol.com
www.diamondgulfoast.com - www.ridhwan.org - www.ahalmaas.com